

Iconic WA
women: Liz
Carberry, Lisa
Scaffidi and Liz Davenport.
Picture:
Bill Hatto

TAKE TEA WITH LOCAL LEGENDS

Held as part of the Perth Fashion Festival and hosted by Networking WA, this Friday's Fashion Icon High Tea at the Pan Pacific Hotel will see some of the most experienced fashion industry names gather together to talk about their careers. Designer Liz Davenport, hairdresser Maurice Meade, Mid 70s Concept owner Nanette Carnachan (celebrating her 30th year in the industry), and fashion stylist and former model Liz Carberry will take part in a Q&A panel, where guests can ask questions and learn about their keys to success. This is a fantastic chance to get up close and personal with these living legends of the WA fashion scene while enjoying a delicious high tea and a performance by internationally acclaimed opera singer Sara Macliver. Also in attendance? The always stylish Lord Mayor Lisa Scaffidi. Tickets are $110 plus booking fee; networkingwa.com.au.