

The butterfly effect

Nedlands label Liz Davenport has teamed with another iconic WA business, Willie Creek Pearls, to create a new Butterfly Silk Collection.

Liz, who has been working with Willie Creek Pearls for the past year, said: “The synergy of pearls, butterflies and silk is good for the spirit.”

Liz’s brightly coloured, floaty silk chiffon and silk butterfly wraps and tops are complemented by Willie Creek Pearls’ limited edition collection.

The jewellery, like Liz’s designs, is based on versatility; the bracelet and necklaces can be linked to form different lengths. The collection comes in two designs, the contemporary Butterfly Effect and classic Butterfly Kisses.

“The jewellery is such a perfect fit with my new collection of silk garments,” Liz said.

The limited edition Butterfly collection is on display at Liz Davenport’s Nedlands showroom and at Willie Creek’s Rokeby Road showroom. This weekend, Liz embarks on an interstate series of “butterfly parties” before going up to Broome for ladies’ day at the Broome races in August.

■ Aimee Thompson (Chadwick Models) wears a Liz Davenport silk butterfly wrap with Willie Creek Pearl’s yellow gold Butterfly Kisses necklaces, earrings and bracelet. Photo: Paul McGovern