West Australian fashion doyenne honored in the Who's Who of Australian Fashion.

Friday 19th April 2013

Last week, the streets of Paddington, Sydney were filled with upbeat DJ tunes as hundreds of Sydney's most stylish flocked to support The 2nd Annual Australian Walk of Style event at The Intersection Paddington.

The event unveiled the prestigious Who's Who of Australian fashion Top 100 most influential fashion identities from 1962 -2012 which included iconic West Australian fashion designer, Liz Davenport.

"Very often Western Australians are overlooked when awards are issues from Sydney or Melbourne. I was very honoured to be included in the Who's Who of Australian Fashion on Oxford St in Sydney. There were very high profile, fashion industry icons of the past 50 years and I was very proud to be written into that chapter of history with them."

The list was voted on by Australia's five Fashion Laureates: Akira Isagowa, Collette Dinnigan, Carla Zampatti, Pamela Easton & Lydia Pearson and Simon Lock.

The Who's Who list is cast in bronze and on permanent display at The Intersection Paddington. The event also honored six iconic Australian designers, whose names were cast in bronze and laid in stone on the Oxford Street footpath, a permanent tribute to their enduring success in the Australian fashion industry.

Australian Fashion Week founder and 2010 Fashion Laureate recipient Simon Lock officially welcomed guests, before presenting the 2013 Australian Walk of Style commemorative plaques.
